EVA bringing Hello Kitty Hand-in-Hand Jet back to L.A.

SPECIALLY PAINTED PLANE SCHEDULED TUESDAY, THURSDAY, SATURDAY

TAIPEI, TAIWAN – EVA Air is bringing its popular Hello Kitty Hand-in-Hand Jet back to Los Angeles, starting March 27, 2018. It will fly the specially painted plane between Los Angeles International Airport (LAX) and Taipei's Taoyuan International Airport (TPE) on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, three of the 21 weekly nonstop flights it operates on the route. Travelers can learn more about EVA's Hello Kitty and Sanrio Family jets at <http://www.evakitty.com/en/index.html> and book flights on the cheerful aircraft through travel agents, the airline's reservations hotlines (800-695-1188/North America) and online at www.evaair.com.

The colorful Boeing 777-300ER is configured with three cabins, Royal Laurel Class business, Premium Economy and Economy.

EVA created its Hello Kitty

A STAR ALLIANCE MEMBER

and Sanrio Family Jets to make flying fun. It embellished the Hand-in-Hand Jet inside and out with Hello Kitty and her Sanrio friends and launched it on the Los Angeles - Taipei route in September 2013.

It rerouted the festive aircraft to the Taipei - Paris route in October 2014.

EVA and Sanrio worked together to design livery and in-flight service items for the Hand-in-Hand

Jet that bridge cultural barriers and invite global exchanges among passengers and people they meet during their travels. The always charming Hello Kitty gives travelers a warm welcome as she joins hands with Sanrio family and friends of different shapes and sizes, standing together from nose to tail of the aircraft on both sides. Along with Hello Kitty and Dear Daniel, characters on the plane include My Melody, Kuromi, Little Twin Stars, Cinnamoroll, Pompom Purin and Bad Bantz-Maru. The EVA Hand-in-Hand Jet features 19 Sanrio characters.

The Hello Kitty Jet experience begins at airport check-in with Hello Kitty boarding passes and baggage stickers. Onboard, the cabin crew wears light-green Hello Kitty Jet aprons and passengers use service items decorated with the irresistible characters.

Remembering Someone Dear

Dear Family & Friends,

Time heals all wounds is said by many, but it does not apply to me; as I think of Ed on his Fifth Anniversary, It is harder than it can be, as it makes me sad and lonely not to hear his voice and I miss him more.

So I try to remember the good times we had together. The anniversaries at the Hale Koa Hotel in Hawaii. The cruise on the Tahitian Princess to Greenland and Iceland to Scotland and Ireland, his ancestry...

The laughs we had at every military and school reunion with Troopers and friends and parties with family like you; the phone calls at Noon in school, and the surprises he brought me as he walked in the door. So I dedicate to him this song from our favorite crooner, Frank Sinatra:

YOU WILL BE MY MUSIC
When all the songs are out of tune,
and all the rhymes ring so untrue;
When I don't find the words to say
The Thoughts I long to bring to you;
When I hear lonely singers
Who are just as lost as me
Making noise, not melody

You will be my Music,
You will be my Song
You will be my Music,
I can't wait any longer if I'm wrong.
I'll never find the song to tell me
All the things I need to say
And I'm afraid as time goes by
That someday soon you'll go away;
And I'll be lost in trying
For songs I'll never sing,
Wanting you is everything;

You will be my Music.
You will be my Song.
You will be my Music,
I can't wait any longer if I'm wrong
I can't wait any longer for my Song.
You will be my Song
And there is nothing between "YOU and me, As You said "Goodbye"
at three AM and Eternity.
